Capital City Figure Skating Club welcomes you warmly to the 2011 Central Pacific Regional Championships! We are excited you are joining us for this great weekend of competition. Our club extends its best wishes to all competitors, their families, coaches, officials, and all those who support the skaters at Centrals and the sport of figure skating.

We thank Skatetown Ice Arena for the use of their clean, modern facility that includes two NHL- sized sheets of ice, locker rooms, a snack bar, and parking. We also thank our official host hotel, the Galleria Courtyard by Marriott, as well as the other local Roseville hotels that have offered up rooms to the competitors at Centrals at special event rates.

During your stay in the greater Sacramento region we hope you take some time to enjoy the local sights and attractions –the Roseville Galleria Mall and surrounding shopping, and in downtown Sacramento the state Capitol, Sutter’s Fort, historic Old Sacramento, the state Railroad Museum and the Crocker Art Gallery. Beautiful Lake Tahoe is also a short 1 ½ hour drive away.

The Central Pacific Planning Committee and all the event volunteers has put in hundreds of hours to host this event, and Capital City Figure Skating Club thanks you all for your generosity.

For all of us at Capital City Figure Skating Club, we wish everyone an enjoyable and successful 2011 Central Pacific Regional Championships.

Sincerely,

Dana Burns and Sandy Hopson-Davis
