

In order to provide our membership with current and accurate information, we are currently conducting a major update to our Sports Medicine & Science National Network Online Directory.

If you are a skater, coach or parent seeking the contact information of a sports science or sports medicine specialist in your area, we sincerely apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your patience as we update our list.

If you are a sports science or sports medicine practitioner who has previously been or would like to be listed in our online directory, please help us update our listing information by completing the Sports Medicine & Science National Network application form located at:
