Return to Action – Courtney Hicks is the 2011 U.S. junior champion. She began last season with promise, winning gold at JGP Australia before suffering a season-ending leg injury at JGP Italy.

Welcome Back, Welcome Back, Welcome Back – Both Kiri Baga and Angela Wang return to JGP competition for the first time since 2010. Baga is a three-time JGP medalist who also skates pairs with Taylor Toth. Wang finished fourth in her only other international competition, 2010 JGP Japan.

Always on Top – Joshua Farris owns five JGP medals, including bronze at the most recent JGP Final. He has won gold at his last three qualifying events including events in Poland and Estonia last fall.

The Rookies– James Schetelich and Spencer Howe, who finished 2-3 as novices at the 2012 U.S. Championships, make their international debuts in New York.

Pairs Open the Season – JGP United States is the first of four events this season to feature pairs competition. As the reigning U.S. junior champions, Haven Denney & Brandon Frazier present the U.S.'s best chance for a medal.

Back to Business – Alexandra Aldridge & Daniel Eaton enjoyed their most successful season in 2011-12. They started the year with two JGP medals before finishing fourth at the JGP Final. They went on to win the 2012 U.S. junior title and the World Junior bronze medal.
