Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
United States Figure Skating Association
and Affiliates

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of United States Figure Skating Association and Affiliates (the "Organization"), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 and the related consolidated statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Organization and to meet our ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As described in Note 6 to the consolidated financial statements, the consolidated financial statements include certain investments valued at approximately $34,000,000 (31 percent of net assets) and $32,322,000 (31 percent of net assets) at June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, whose fair values are not based on readily determinable fair values. Management recognizes the fair values of these investments based on information provided by the fund managers or general partners. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are issued or available to be issued.

To the Board of Directors
United States Figure Skating Association
and Affiliates

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audits of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and, therefore, is not a guarantee that audits conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the consolidated financial statements.

In performing audits in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audits.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audits in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audits, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audits.

Note 1 - Nature of Business

United States Figure Skating Association (the "Association") is the national governing body for figure skating on ice in the United States and is so recognized by the International Skating Union (ISU) and the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee (USOPC). The Association's mission is to provide programs to encourage participation, enjoyment, and achievement in the sport of figure skating. Established in 1921, the Association is composed of approximately 875 full member, collegiate clubs and school-affiliated clubs and serves more than 246,000 members nationwide. The Association's headquarters are located in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Recognizing that competition at every level is a principal incentive for figure skaters to train, develop, and improve their proficiency, the Association sanctions official test sessions to measure progress in the various branches of the sport. It also sanctions, directly or indirectly, all official U.S. figure skating competitions. Member clubs throughout the United States conduct the tests and competitions. By ascending the competition ladder, competitors registered with the Association develop opportunities to gain entry to international figure skating events, among them the Winter Olympic Games and world championships.

The World Figure Skating Museum and Hall of Fame (the "Museum"), an activity of the Association, honors the heritage of the sport. Serving as an international repository for the sport of figure skating, the Museum is dedicated exclusively to the collection, preservation, and interpretation of the history and historical artifacts of figure skating throughout the world. The greatest names in figure skating are honored in the Hall of Fame, housed within the Museum.

Ice Network, LLC (Ice Network) is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Association created in 2007 to hold exclusive rights to certain interactive media assets licensed to it by the Association.

20 First Street Properties (Properties) is a separate, tax-exempt, not-for-profit title-holding company created in 2004 solely for the purpose of owning; holding title to; and maintaining the land, buildings, and improvements of the Association's headquarters.

The United States Figure Skating Foundation (the "Foundation") is a separate, tax-exempt, not-for-profit organization established in 2000 to receive, hold, manage, and invest funds transferred, conveyed, or contributed to it by or for the benefit of the Association. The Foundation is governed by a separate board of directors, a majority of whom are appointed by the Association's board of directors. The board of directors of the Foundation authorizes supporting distributions to the Association.

Note 2 - Significant Accounting Policies

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Association, Ice Network, Properties, and the Foundation (collectively, the "Organization"). All material intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the basis of generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect amounts reported in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all investments with an original maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. From time to time, portions of bank deposits exceed amounts insured by the FDIC.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

June 30, 2024 and 2023

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are composed of amounts due under contracts with event sponsors, marketing agents, licensees, and broadcasters. Also included are amounts due from clubs for dues, merchandise, shortfalls of member dues, test fees, and sanction fees. Trade accounts receivable are stated at invoice amounts. An allowance for credit losses is established for amounts expected to be uncollectible over the contractual life of the receivables. The Organization collectively evaluates trade receivables to determine the allowance for credit losses based on similar customer types and credit risk. The Organization calculates the allowance using an expected loss model that considers the Organization's actual historical loss rates adjusted for current economic conditions reasonable and supportable forecasts. The Organization considers industry and economic market conditions when making adjustments for reasonable and supportable forecasts. Uncollectible amounts are written off against the allowance for credit losses in the period they are determined to be uncollectible. Recoveries of amounts previously written off are recognized when received. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at June 30, 2024 and 2023.

Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value and consists primarily of program-related inventory, such as achievement pins, medals, emblems, team/logo apparel, and other supplies held for resale to clubs, members, and athletes.

Investments

Investments are reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses included in the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets.

Alternative investments, composed primarily of hedge funds and limited partnerships that are not readily marketable, are measured at fair value, valued at net asset value per share as the practical expedient. The Organization reviews and evaluates the values provided by the investment managers and agrees with the valuation methods and significant assumptions used in determining fair value. Those estimated fair values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for these securities existed.

Investment securities are classified based on the Organization's intent with respect to holding securities.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment purchases in excess of $1,000 are recorded at cost. The straight-line method is used for computing depreciation and amortization. Assets are depreciated over their estimated useful lives. Costs of maintenance and repairs are charged to expense when incurred.

Historical Artifacts

The Museum's historical artifacts are capitalized at original cost or, if donated, at fair value at the date the artifacts were received.

Deferred Revenue

Revenue from the sale of certain types of memberships and programs is deferred and recognized as income over the period of the membership or program.

Classification of Net Assets

Net assets of the Organization are classified based on the presence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions or for which the donor-imposed restrictions have expired or been fulfilled. Net assets in this category may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Organization.

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Organization or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Earnings, gains, and losses on donor-restricted net assets are classified as net assets without donor restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor or by applicable state law.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized upon transfer of control of promised products or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Organization expects to receive in exchange for those products or services. The Organization's significant sources of revenue from contracts with customers include broadcasting and licensing, dues and publications, skating events, and admissions and activity fees.

Broadcasting and Licensing

For broadcasting and licensing revenue, the Organization has performance obligations for conducting the events to enable the production of a broadcast. The terms of broadcasting arrangements are such that rights are assigned to individual events that occur and are satisfied at the point in time when the respective event to which they pertain occurs.

Payment terms are specific to each contract. In some situations, the Organization bills customers and collects cash prior to the satisfaction of the performance obligation, which results in the Organization recognizing contract liabilities.

Dues and Publications

Dues revenue from members include access to various member benefits, including ability to skate in sanctioned U.S. figure skating competitions, certificates of accomplishment, subscription to the SKATING magazine, sports accident insurance, and special offers and discounts from U.S. figure skating corporate partners. Access to these benefits is voluntary and can occur during the membership period, and the benefits are treated as part of the membership itself rather than as multiple performance obligations. Membership dues are paid at the beginning of each membership period and are recognized as deferred dues. The Organization recognizes the membership dues revenue ratably over the membership period. The Organization determined that this method provides a faithful depiction of the transfer of goods or services because the customer is required to pay regardless of how frequently the product or membership benefits are used, and the Organization stands ready to make its goods or services available to the customer on a constant basis over the contract period.

Skating Events

Skating event revenue includes entry into the events and charges to the hosting organization. The Organization has performance obligations for conducting the events. Performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time, which is when the events take place. Payment is due prior to the event, with limited cancellation options. Revenue is recognized in the period in which the event takes place.

Admissions Activity and Fees

Admissions activity and fees revenue includes the registration fees for participants to enter events, such as competitions and training workshops. The Organization has performance obligations for providing the promised events. Event registration is billed at the time of the registration. The Organization recognizes advance payments as deferred revenue and records the revenue upon completion of the event.

Other Information

Accounts receivable from contracts with customers were $661,525, $1,320,285, and $1,074,490 as of June 30, 2024; June 30, 2023; and July 1, 2022, respectively.

Contract liabilities from contracts with customers were $3,792,192, $2,624,235, and $2,251,249 as of June 30, 2024; June 30, 2023; and July 1, 2022, respectively.

Contributions

Unconditional promises to give cash and other assets to the Organization are reported at fair value on the date the promise is received. Conditional promises to give and indications of intentions to give are reported at fair value on the date the gift becomes unconditional or is received. The gifts are reported as contributions with donor restrictions if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets as net assets released from restrictions. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met within the year in which the gift is received are reported as contributions without donor restrictions in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

Costs of providing the program and support services have been reported on a functional basis in the consolidated statement of functional expenses. The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributable to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, these expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. Costs have been allocated between various program and support services on several bases and estimates. Salary, benefits, contract labor, and travel are allocated fully to the related program and on the basis of estimates of time and effort spent by personnel in the various program and support services. Certain operating expenses, such as supplies, shipping and postage, insurance, and information technology, have been allocated based on usage. Maintenance and facility expenses have been allocated based on square footage. Costs have been allocated between the various program and support services based on estimates determined by management. Although the methods of allocation used are considered appropriate, other methods could be used that would produce different amounts.

Income Taxes

The Organization is a not-for-profit corporation and is exempt from tax under the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Litigation

The Organization is involved in various legal proceedings, administrative actions, and claims arising in the normal course of business. In the opinion of management, the Organization's liability, if any, under pending litigation and administrative actions will not materially affect its financial statements.

Note 6 - Fair Value Measurements

Accounting standards require certain assets and liabilities be reported at fair value in the financial statements and provide a framework for establishing that fair value. The framework for determining fair value is based on a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs and valuation techniques used to measure fair value.

Fair values determined by Level 1 inputs use quoted prices in active markets for identical assets that the Organization has the ability to access.

Fair values determined by Level 2 inputs use other inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These Level 2 inputs include quoted prices for similar assets in active markets and other inputs, such as interest rates and yield curves, that are observable at commonly quoted intervals.

Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs, including inputs that are available in situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the related asset. These Level 3 fair value measurements are based primarily on management's own estimates using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques taking into account the characteristics of the asset.

Certain assets are measured at net asset value (NAV) per share as a practical expedient to fair value and are not classified in the fair value hierarchy. NAV per share is provided by the investment managers of the investment funds and represents the investor entity's (the Organization's) share of the underlying net assets (assets net of liabilities) of the investment fund as of the consolidated statement of financial position date.

In instances where inputs used to measure fair value fall into different levels in the above fair value hierarchy, fair value measurements in their entirety are categorized based on the lowest level input that is significant to the valuation. The Organization's assessment of the significance of particular inputs to these fair value measurements requires judgment and considers factors specific to each asset.

The following is a description of valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Money market funds, exchange-traded and closed-end funds, mutual funds, U.S. Treasuries, and equities:
Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Endowment (USOPE) portfolio: The Foundation has an undivided interest in a pool of assets. The fair value of the Foundation's interest is based on the fair value of the portfolio investments reported by the USOPE. These are considered to be Level 3 measurements.

The Foundation may terminate its investment agreement with the USOPE effective at the end of any calendar month upon the giving of at least 90 day's written notice or upon shorter notice acceptable to the USOPE if the USOPE determines that adequate liquidity exists in the portfolio to permit early termination.

The following tables present information about the Organization's assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis at June 30, 2024 and 2023 and the valuation techniques used by the Organization to determine those fair values:

Note 7 - Donor-restricted and Board-designated Endowments

The Organization's endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the board to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the board to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The Organization is subject to the State Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (SPMIFA) and, thus, classifies amounts in its donor-restricted endowment funds as net assets with donor restrictions because those net assets are time restricted until the board appropriates such amounts for expenditures. Most of those net assets also are subject to purpose restrictions that must be met before reclassifying those net assets to net assets without donor restrictions. The board of the Organization had interpreted SPMIFA as not requiring the maintenance of purchasing power of the original gift amount contributed to an endowment fund, unless a donor stipulates the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, when reviewing its donor-restricted endowment funds, the Organization considers a fund to be underwater if the fair value of the fund is less than the sum of (a) the original value of initial and subsequent gift amounts donated to the fund and (b) any accumulations to the fund that are required to be maintained in perpetuity in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument. The Organization has interpreted SPMIFA to permit spending from underwater funds in accordance with the prudent measures required under the law. Additionally, in accordance with SPMIFA, the Organization considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- The duration and preservation of the fund
- The purpose of the Organization and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- General economic conditions
- The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- Other resources of the Organization
- The investment policies of the Organization

Underwater Endowment Funds

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or SPMIFA requires the Organization to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, there were no funds with deficiencies.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters, Spending Policy, and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy

The Organization has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Organization must hold in perpetuity and assets designated by the board to function as endowments. The endowment policies allow for annual cash distributions from the endowment funds ranging from 3 percent to 5 percent of the average net asset value of the funds. Under the Organization's investment policy, as approved by the board, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce maximum results while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The Foundation expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of 3 percent in excess of the consumer price index (CPI) annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Organization relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Organization targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 8 - Retirement Plans

The Organization sponsors a 403(b) plan for substantially all employees. The plan provides for the Organization to make a discretionary matching contribution. The Organization matches employees' voluntary contributions up to 4 percent of the employee's compensation after three months of service. Contributions are vested over three years at the rate of one-third per year. Contributions to the plan totaled $333,438 and $277,377 for the years ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.
