

COMPLETE U.S. FIGURE SKATING WAIVERS AND AGREEMENTS

Beginning June 1, 2020 all coaches and officials are required to agree to three waivers: Assumption of Risk, Waiver and Release and Indemnification Agreement; Authorization and Consent for Emergency Medical Care; and a Name and Likeness Consent and Agreement. These are in addition to the policies and agreements required in previous seasons.

1. Log in to your Members Only profile.

Welcome to U.S. Figure Skating's Members Only login page!

You will notice some new features and content on the Members Only website beginning in 2020. With the reimagining of usfigureskating.org, Members Only has also undergone several changes resulting in a more organized and robust experience for members. In addition to the previously existing content, you will find several new menu items on the site that will lead you to important resources and member-centric content.

We welcome your feedback! Let us know what is working well for you or how we may better serve your needs through future updates by emailing us at websitefeedback@usfigureskating.org.

Code of Ethics

GeneratePolicyDocument 1 / 2

General Rules

GR 1.00 Policy
GR 1.01 Code of Ethics

A. It shall be the responsibility of all officials in sanctioned figure skating events, registered members of member clubs or collegiate clubs and individual members to be thoroughly familiar with the rules of U.S. Figure Skating, to comply with them in full and to exemplify the highest standards of fairness, ethical behavior and genuine good sportsmanship in any of their relations with others. Those who serve U.S. Figure Skating must do so without personal gain, must avoid any institutional loss or embarrassment and must behave in a way that enhances U.S. Figure Skating's trust and public confidence.

B. Conflicts of Interest. All persons associated with U.S. Figure Skating, including but not limited to its employees, directors, officers, judges and committee members, are expected to abide by high ethical standards in all dealings relating to business and affairs of U.S. Figure Skating. All members and staff should understand that conflicts of interest diminish the integrity and quality of decision-making required by U.S. Figure Skating and may jeopardize U.S. Figure Skating's reputation and public support. In order to avoid harm to the goodwill and public image of U.S. Figure Skating and to better ensure the expected high ethical standards in all dealings, if any person who is an officer, director, judge, member of a committee, employee, paid consultant to or representative of U.S. Figure Skating (each of these persons shall be referred to as a "representative") is aware that U.S. Figure Skating is about to enter into any business transaction directly

By clicking Accept, I understand that as a U.S. Figure Skating member coach, I have assumed certain responsibilities to prepare, develop, be an advocate and role model, I have read the "Coaches Code of Ethics, Standards and Conduct" and understand what is expected of me.
